Reflection by Javier, CMF

Saint Augustin in one of his sermons wrote: "God made both the rich and the poor. So the rich and the poor are born alike. You meet one another as you walk on the way together. Do not oppress or defraud anyone. One may be needy and another may have plenty. But the Lord is the maker of them both. Through the person who has, He helps the one who needs - and through the person who does not have, He tests the one who has (excerpt from Sermon 35, 7)." Luke's Gospel presents Jesus confronting the Pharisees after his teaching has been rejected. Jesus offers them the parable of the Rich man and Lazarus. With this, Jesus addresses their attitude of indifference before those in need. Lazarus' name means "God is my help" and represents all those who are neglected and forgotten, but that also put their hope and trust in God. Understanding today's gospel requires a radical change of mind. Most of the time, our society makes us believe that we deserve everything that we are able to work for and acquire. Today we are called to move beyond this understanding and see Jesus in each other; recognizing the sacred humanity that we share with every person, especially those who are rejected and forgotten in our midst. Let us not forget that to ignore those in more need is to despise God and that the Lord's mercy for us is tightly connected to our own mercy to others.

Do you shop a lot on Amazon? If so, CCM could receive a donation from your purchase. Before you place your order, go to <https://smile.amazon.com>. Under the search bar, there is an option to add a charity. Add "O'Reilly Catholic Student Center." This allows CCM to receive .5% of your order total to no cost to you! There is also a link on our website, ccm847.org.

CCM Student Contributions

Sunday Collections are a major part of Catholic Campus Ministry's funding. Without them, we can not provide many of the activities we have each week. We ask that if you can, give $5-$10 a week or make a one time donation of $50-$100 per semester. We accept cash, check, and there are slips in the pews for credit card payments. Any amount is appreciated and makes a difference. Thank you for your generosity.

Collections for September 11, 2016

11 am- $308
7:30 pm - $478
10:15 pm- $31
Total- $787

First Communion and/or Confirmation

For any Catholic students who need to make First Communion and/or Confirmation, there is a separate track for you. For more information, please contact Sr. Michelle at 417-599-0199 or email at sistermichelle@ccm847.org.

Friday Lunch

If you plan on eating Friday lunch throughout the semester, you can buy a lunch pass for $24!
